“Krishna’s contribution to the world and humanity is profound, rooted in a devotion that transcends the ordinary. Inspired by this spiritual power, Laxmi Diamonds introduces the Murli Manohar Collection. These pieces celebrate the various avatars of Krishna and the sacred love of Radha-Krishna. This concept in jewellery allows wearers to carry the strength of divinity and spirituality with them.

Dr. Chetan Kumar Mehta

CMD Laxmi Diamonds - Bengaluru

“I am delighted to be here. This is the “signature” event of the GJ industry. We are here to connect, and learn from the masters and stalwarts of the industry. There is so much to gain and take back. I am particularly looking forward to see the innovations showcased at IIJS Bharat Signature 2026. This show has so much to delight and excite.

The session saw a power packed panel of experts that comprised Surendra Mehta, National Secretary- IBJA, Ranjith Singh, Head of Business Development, IIBX, Shweta Dhanak, Director - Vijay Exports, S Thirupathi Rajan, MD Goldsmith Academy, Shivanshu Mehta, SVP & Head Bullion-MCX. The session was moderated by Chirag Seth, Principal Consultant, Metals Focus.

Some salient points made by the panelists:

- Gold prices are not linked to consumer demand. They are linked to central bank buying and ETFs.
Till the banking system doesn't collapse, gold price will continue to rise.
- Jewellers were advised to use a mix of futures and options for risk mitigation.
- Given the current situation manufacturers selling on credit or unfavorable deals could be fatal flaw for business.
- Precious metals forecast: Surendra Mehta said he sees gold in 2026 in $4900-5100 range and silver in $90-105. Looking further he said by 2030-2035 gold could touch $18000- 20000 and silver could reach $500. Chirag Seth predicted silver touching $105 this year and gold moving in the $ 5200- $ 5500 range.
